

SINCE THE LAST GOODBYE

Alan Parsons Project

A

B/A

The hours, the minutes seem to fly

Dm/A

and since the last good bye

A

you and I came a long way.

B/A

The nights, too short to fill with sleep

Dm/A

or fallin' in too deep

seem so far away now.

Cm

Gm

Memories, all we share between us

D/F# Dm6/F A/E

everything we were, all that we remain.

Em

Bm

But memories somehow came between us

A Dm6/F A Dm6/F

breaking up two minds that were one and the same.

The years are moments passing by no time to wonder why you and I went the wrong way.

The days too short to fill with dream

or question what it means are a part of me now.

Remember, all the leaves are falling walking hand in hand, standing in the rain.

Remember distant voices calling,

A Dm6/F A A7

whispers in the dark, I can hear them again...
