The Open Hymnal Advent & Christmas Edition 2009

This Advent and Christmas Hymnal is a part of the Open Hymnal Project to create a free, public domain, downloadable database of Christian hymns, spiritual songs, and prelude/postlude music. I am doing my best to create a final product that is "Hymnal-quality", and could feasibly be used as the basis for a printed church hymnal. This music is to be distributed as complete scores (words and music), using all accompaniment parts, in formats that are easily accessible on most computer OS's and which can be freely modified by anyone.

What is Advent? Why do we celebrate it?

Advent (the word means "coming") is a season of the Church calendar which immediately precedes Christmas. It is a season of anticipation, excitement, and preparation. Imagine the excitement of an expectant mother and her family in the days just before her baby is born; we're nearly overflowing with anticipation, but the party hasn't fully started just yet.

We are actually celebrating three "comings" of Christ in Advent: past, present, and future...

- The coming of Christ to Earth in human flesh when He was born in Bethlehem two thousand years ago
- The coming of Christ among us through the work of the Holy Spirit, whereby we are nourished by His Word and Sacraments
- The coming of Christ in glory at the last day. For just as we celebrated our future resurrection promised by Christ's resurrection at Easter, and as we celebrated our future presence with the Father promised by Christ's presence with the Father granted at Ascension day, now we anticipate the delivery and fulfillment of these promises for us: the last day.

We see all of these at the same time, and we see them connected. We see in Christmas Christ's fulfillment of God's promises to send a Savior, and we anticipate the fulfillment of the remaining promises: an end of all strife and pain in the world, and perfect harmony with God restored!

And so, like a family waiting the birth of a newborn, or like children awaiting the return of their beloved father who's been away for a long time, we prepare. To do so, we look to the example of others who have prepared for Christ. Like John the Baptist, we say "Make ready the way of the Lord! Make his paths straight!" and "Repent!" We see in ourselves the sinfulness which we have no power to overcome and we see clearly the cross of Jesus, the Savior, who has overcome our sinfulness for us, that we may be called Children of God!

So celebrate with us! Maranatha: Amen! Yes, come, Lord Jesus.

All Praise to Jesus' Hallowed Name

(also known as All Praise to Thee, O Jesus Christ or

We Praise You, Jesus at Your Birth or All Praise to Thee, Eternal Lord)

Words: verse 1, ancient German. verses 2–7, Martin Luther, 1524. Translated by Richard Massie, 1854, alt.
Music: 'Gelobet Seist Du', ancient German found in Walter's Geistliche Gesangbüchlein, 1524.

Setting: A. Haupt, 1869.

copyright: public domain. This score is a part of the Open Hymnal Project, 2009 Revision.

- 6. He came to earth so mean and poor, Man to pity and restore, And make us rich in heaven above, Equal with angels through his love.
- 7. All this He did to show His grace To our poor and sinful race; For this let Christendom adore And praise His name for evermore.

Angels From the Realms of Glory

Words: James Montgomery, 1816. Music: 'Regent Square' Henry Smart, 1867. Setting: The Methodist Hymnal, 1909. copyright: public domain. This score is a part of the Open Hymnal Project, 2007 Revision.

- 6. Though an Infant now we view Him, He shall fill His Father's throne, Gather all the nations to Him; Every knee shall then bow down:
- 7. All creation, join in praising God, the Father, Spirit, Son, Evermore your voices raising To th'eternal Three in One.

Angels We Have Heard On High

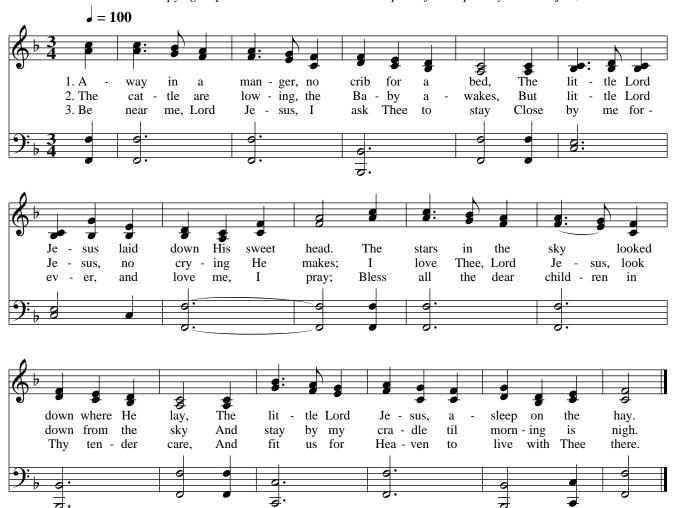

Words: French Carol; Translated by James Chadwick, 1862. Music: 'Gloria' French carol melody. Setting: Edward (or Edwin) S. Barnes, (1887–1958). copyright: public domain. This score is a part of the Open Hymnal Project, 2005 Revision.

- Now let us all, with gladsome cheer, Follow the shepherds, and draw near To see this wondrous Gift of God, Who hath His own dear Son bestowed.
- 7. Give heed, my heart, lift up thine eyes! What is it in yon manger lies? Who is this Child, so young and fair? The blessèd Christ Child lieth there!
- 8. Welcome to earth, Thou noble Guest, Through Whom e'en wicked men are blest! Thou com'st to share our misery, What can we render, Lord, to Thee!
- Ah, Lord, Who hast created all, How hast Thou made Thee weak and small, To lie upon the coarse dry grass, The food of humble ox and ass.
- 10. Were earth a thousand times as fair, Beset with gold and jewels rare, She yet were far too poor to be A narrow cradle, Lord, for Thee.

- 11. For velvets soft and silken stuff Thou hast but hay and straw so rough, Whereon Thou King, so rich and great, As 'twere Thy heaven, art throned in state.
- 12. Thus hath it pleased Thee to make plain
 The truth to us, poor fools and vain,
 That this world's honor, wealth and might
 Are naught and worthless in Thy sight.
- 13. Ah, dearest Jesus, holy Child, Make Thee a bed, soft, undefiled, Here in my poor heart's inmost shrine, That I may evermore be Thine.
- 14. My heart for very joy doth leap, My lips no more can silence keep, I too must sing, with joyful tongue, That sweetest ancient cradle song.
- 15. Glory to God in highest Heaven, Who unto man His Son hath given, While angels sing, with pious mirth, A glad New Year to all the earth.

This hymn was written by Martin Luther to teach his 3 year old son about Christmas, and became a part of the Luther family Christmas tradition. One of the adults would dress up as an angel and sing the first 5 verses to the family. The rest of the family would sing verses 6 through 15.
