This image displays the piano accompaniment for the second page of the song "This Is Me" by Demi Lovato. The score is written for piano and consists of five systems of music, each with a treble and bass staff. The key signature is three sharps (F#, C#, G#), and the time signature is 4/4. The music features a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes in the right hand, often with a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the left hand. The piece concludes with a final chord in the right hand and a sustained bass line in the left hand.

The first system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. Both staves are in the key of D major, indicated by two sharps (F# and C#). The music features a melodic line in the treble clef and a rhythmic accompaniment in the bass clef. The time signature is 4/4.

The second system of musical notation continues the piece with two staves in treble and bass clefs. The key signature remains D major. The melody in the treble clef continues with various note values, while the bass clef provides a steady accompaniment.

The third system of musical notation shows further development of the melody and accompaniment. The treble clef staff contains more complex melodic phrases, and the bass clef staff maintains the rhythmic foundation.

The fourth system of musical notation features a notable change in the bass clef staff, which now includes dense chordal textures and block chords, providing a more harmonic support for the melody.

The fifth and final system of musical notation on this page concludes the piece. It features a final melodic phrase in the treble clef and a corresponding accompaniment in the bass clef, ending with a clear cadence.
